

Week 1 - Web Programming Exam

Popular Movies List (20 Marks)

1. Create a web page with the layout as shown in the mock up below. (1 mark x 6 boxes)
2. Use the movies.json data in the web page and parse it into a JS object. (2 marks)
3. Write a function to display the first movie data on the web page. (1 mark x 6 boxes)
 - a. To load the movie poster images, prefix "<https://image.tmdb.org/t/p/w500>" to the poster_path JSON data attribute and use it in the image tag.
4. Call the display function on page load. (1 mark)
5. Place two buttons one on the left and the second on the right side of this box.
6. On clicking the right button, load the next movie in the JSON array. (2 marks)
7. On clicking the left button, load the previous movie in the JSON array. (2 marks)
8. Disable the buttons when there are no movies to the left or to the right. (1 mark)

Vote Average

 Movie Poster	Movie Title
	Release Date
Movie Overview
more info link	